

Materialities of Security and Surveillance:
Perspectives on When and Where Security Studies Meets STS

Tuesday 15 December, 11.00 -13. 30

IT University, Copenhagen (Room: TBA)

Workshop arranged by

Center for Advanced Security Theory (CAST), University of Copenhagen &
Design of Organizational IT (DOIT), IT University of Copenhagen

11:00-11:10 Mats Fridlund, CAST: "Introduction: Securitizing materialities"

11:10-11:40 Paul Edwards, School of Information, University of Michigan: "Cold War, Nuclear Winter, and Global Environmental Knowledge: Infrastructures for Planetary Sensing and Surveillance"

11:40-12:10 Discussion

12:10-12:40 Christopher Gad, DOIT, IT University of Copenhagen, "Surveillance and Popular Culture: Oligopticon and Ethnographies of Surveillance"

12.40 - 13. 00 Casper Buun Jensen, DOIT: "Comments"

13.00 - 13.30 General discussion

Attendance to the workshop is free but please register with Casper Bruun Jensen (cbje@itu.dk) no later than December 10th. Lunch will be provided.